The growing season in 2015 was particularly dry with virtually no rain in January. Warm spring temperatures led to early bud break and slightly lower yields. Consistent heat throughout the summer and early fall proved perfect for ripening and harvest before a series of heat waves that hit the valley in late Fall.

This vintage of our Brix Cabernet Sauvignon is a perfect blend of fruit from three different blocks in our Oakville vineyard.

TASTING NOTES

This wine is lush and intense with aromatics of black cherry, clove and sweet oak spices. The silky texture and supple tannins on the palate are complimented by dark currant, crushed rock and shaved chocolate. One of the more age-worthy vintages of recent, this versatile wine will mature for 15+ years, but is also drinking beautifully upon release.
