Fruit for our Chardonnay is sourced from the organic Marimar Estate's Don Miguel Vineyard, located in the southwest corner of Russian River Valley. The fruit is grown in a cool micro-climate with a combination of See and Rued Clones.

The wine is aged in a combination of stainless steel and used French oak barrels. The old world winemaking technique of batonnage, the French term for stirring the lees, provides a beautifully silky mid palate.

TASTING NOTES

Our 2018 Chardonnay is non-malolactic and offers beautifully complex flavors and aromas of white peach, grilled pineapple, and vanilla. The mouth-feel is plush with a fresh acidity that gives this wine a harmonious balance. Enjoy now and over the next four years.
